Panzers Journal Entry July 1 / 2021

So, where have I been for the past 10 years? That is a great question, but one left to another time. What matters is what is happening right now! A new challenge has presented itself and it's one that I, despite being more than capable of handling myself, require my old team back for.

I will need to enlist my right-hand man, Blarghe, the thirteen-foot-tall cowman to assist me in bringing everyone back together. He was always good for changing lightbulbs, scrub bathes and after all this time, I assume, he will be capable of making a decent cup of coffee. Although, I am not holding my breath on that last one.

When the rest of them hear me call they will come running and tackle whatever task I require of them. I mean, who would not want to? They know who I am and the moment they realize that I am offering them the chance... no, the privilege of serving me again, they will jump at the opportunity!

I guess it is finally time to get out of retirement! Now.. Where did I put my gold plated armor...?

Blarghes Journal Entry

July 2 / 2021

It's the anniversary today!

I have no idea where General Panzer went to. But, I can't believe that it's been ten years since he left.

I will admit that the first nine years he was gone, I spent all of it in disbelief and denial. I assumed it was one of his loyalty checks, so I continued to do everything as though he was still instructing me to. But, after all this time I'm starting to think that it was possible that he finally got himself killed doing something really insane... and maybe, just maybe, he wasn't coming back this time. After a decade I think I am finally FREE! I doubt you would believe me, but I am able to laugh now! I did not even know I was capable of that! Life without the general has been incredible! I have been able to pursue my own interests! Like did you know I can paint?! Ya, I didn't not know that either!

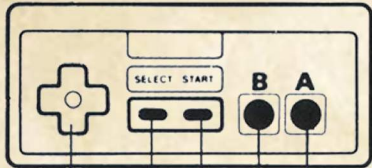

So, I guess now I just need to decide what to do with my life! There are so many things I've wanted to do... Oh! Someone is here to visit me, There's a knock on the door! I guess I better wrap this up. The next entry I make in my journal I will let the world meet a brand new Blarghe!

~Jeff Blarghe

THE WORLD OF PANZER

The Adventures of Panzer takes place over five unique and very incredible levels! Each level will take you on its own unique experience and features individual monsters, obstacles, challenges and individual boss battles! This is a quick reference guide for what to expect as you dive deep into the adventure.

Level 1

Grokks Bandit Cave

After being severely injured, Grokk took refuge in a massive cave swarming with murderous Bandits. These bandits fear Grokk and serve as his unintentional protectors. Rumour has it there is a brewery located somewhere deep in the caverns.

Level 2

Castle Pugna

Pugna used his immense warlock powers to build an incredible castle. Unfortunately, it turned out to be quite a fixer-upper and the amount of work needed to bring it up to code was too much work for him. It's completely infested with his summoned monsters to try to renovate everything.

Level 3

The Dinosaur Jungle

Hidden deep in the jungle; the crazed Vesperto roams. This jungle is different from most others as it's home to many supposedly extinct Dinosaurs. Each one of them is out to mercilessly eat or stomp intruders into the ground!

Level 4

The Northern Mage Tower

Ahzriaz and Sarya have made the mage tower their peaceful home. The secrets of magic and wonder lie in wait for anyone brave enough to venture in. Don't expect a warm welcome though! The residents are trained to protect them at all cost!

Level 5

Hellwolf Citadel

Rumor has it that deep in the frozen mountains, Hellwolf and D.Muscles can be found. Hordes of zombies and undead creatures shuffle from mountain top to mountain top attacking all living creatures on sight.

THE TRASH MOBS

What is a trash mob? A trash mob (or simply trash) is any monster that is not a boss. Trash mobs are usually easier to kill than bosses, although there are some famous trash which are actually harder than the boss they precede. The world of Panzer is full of trash mobs that will make your life miserable. They are very dirty fighters and will find any opportunity to take you down!

THE MINI BOSSES

Throughout the game you can expect to encounter a unique upgraded monster a couple times per level. These monsters have multiple hit points and will have a special attack to watch for!

Wheels: Ex-Bandit king

Before Grokk came into the bandit cave, Wheels was the bandit caves leader. He will run you down!

Ice Beast Omega

Ahzriaz's conjured monster! It will toss razor sharp ice buzz saws at you. Don't get hit or you will regret it!

Spider Queen

Pugnas favorite obstacle for dungeon crawlers. She creates spiders to kill intruders!

Mini Marrow

Deep in the frozen mountains you will encounter the evil Mini Marrow! His whirling axe attack will cut you in half!

Lora-Saurus

A vicious dinosaur that screeches at ear-splitting volumes and runs around like a chicken with its head cut off. But, it gets tired very quickly so take advantage of that!

THE MAIN BOSSES

MECHA GROKK

After Panzer instructed him to hurl himself into an active volcano (for science or something ..), Grokk was horribly injured. He built himself a robot battle suit and went into hiding in a well known Bandit cave. He has been there for the past 10 years and has finally come to peace with himself and his current situation. Grokks IQ is well over 220 and his strength is totally unmatched!

PUGNA

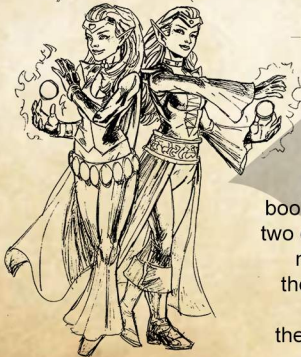

Pugna is by far Panzers oldest acquaintance. He is An extremely powerful warlock that has been know to cause horrific destruction and chaos. He learned early on that you do not need to lift a finger if you can summon creatures to do it for you! Once he realized that, he left Panzers team and summoned an army of monster slaves. Pugna used this newfound workforce to build himself a massive castle where he sits at the top and laughs at all the "suckers" who are doing their own "housework".

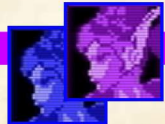

VESPETO

The myth, the legend, the lunatic troll nut job. Vespeto is completely unhinged. He would backstab you for a quarter and then call you while you were in the hospital to ask if you want to meet for drinks later. Vespeto speaks with a Caribbean Jamaican accent which many believe is faked. He left Panzers team 10 years ago because he believed that he could learn to speak to dinosaurs if he went to the jungle. Most the team was thankful that he was gone as his erratic behavior was causing a lot of Havok.

SARYA & AHZRIAZ

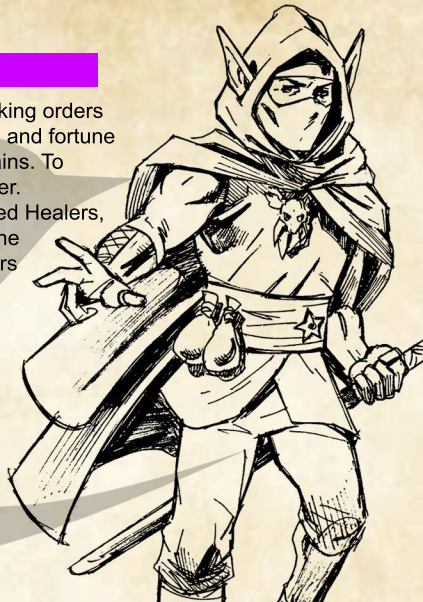

Sarya and Ahzriaz are totally inseparable best friends. After Panzer ordered that all "smarty pants books" were to be destroyed during one of his raids, the two of them left the team disgustedly to create the newly minted Northern Mage tower. Over the past 10 years they have managed to accumulate much of the worlds magical knowledge inside the tower. They protect the tower fiercely from all who would seek to destroy it!

HELLWOLF & D. MUSCLES

When Hellwolf finally had enough of taking orders from Panzer, he struck out to find fame and fortune in the fighting pits of the frozen mountains. To participate he knew he needed a partner. D. Muscles, one of Panzers must trusted Healers, volunteered to go with him and help. The two of them have spent the last 10 years fighting in the frigid cold trying to make a name for themselves.

Vespeto life tip. Eggs are really healthy and should be the foundation of your diet. Don't like the taste? Add cacao, butter, flour and bake for 30 minutes!

NON PLAYER CHARACTERS

Non Player Characters, or NPCs for short, are characters that are not controlled by the player. In the World of Panzer they are characters that are in the game to serve not as enemies but allies!

Instead of attacking you, they will chat with you about the happenings in the world. Be sure to be on the lookout for everyone! They may give you some useful information ... or, more likely, they could just babble about nonsense.
